The Oil Factor	SoapQueen presents Essential oil - Mint (Field mint). We offer a wide range on Mint oils, so be sure to have a scan of our range. All of our mints are grown & distilled in India & offer you the menthol kick you require. Suitable for both food & cosmetics Mint oils are a super addition to your formulation. Mentha Arvensis in particular is used both orally & externally, it carries a strong menthol aroma & a wealthy menthol content. Menthol is an organic compound that produces a cooling sensation when applied to the mouth or skin. It is very much more commercially viable than its 'Piperita' counterpart. Try it infused in one of our seed oils, i.e. Arvensis infused in Sunflower Oil, this reduces your cost base & controls the minty aroma profile.
Functionality	Suitable for both oral care, food or cosmetic ingredients. It carries a strong menthol aroma. A high menthol content. Try it infused in one of our seed oils to control the cost & aroma profile.
